Mahjong itself isn't even well programmed, because often times, various puzzles were impossible to solve. Depraved is a good enjoyable game when you have things set up properly. There are obviously some bugs but the devs are more than willing to help explain and fix them with a quick email.. For a Seek and Find, this one was pretty stoopid. I get the whole be different kind of seek and find, but as a game show just doesn't work for me. Uninstalled and perma banned.. The hud is so hard to use... not to mention how long it takes to load a different tab... saw it on youtube thought it looked cool but im kinda disappointed maybe once i learn the hud a bit more and understand what does what i will fully find enjoyment in this game because at the moment im full of frustration. I wasn't expecting an RPG when I downloaded this, since most of the screenshots are from the platforming sections. But I still got mostly what I expected.

The turn based fighting sections honestly did start to wear on me after a while. And I usually like simple RPGs, but these fights were so easy that it just became monotonous. I beat the final boss in three turns for crying out loud. Maybe it would have been better if I played on hard, I don't know. This isn't too much of a problem though since you can just opt to avoid fights if you want.

The story and the puzzle sections made the game for me. It's got a really neat sort of singularity type of story that I've never seen in a game before. And I like how you learn more about the characters as the game progresses.

The platforming sections I liked the most, I just wish there were more of them.

Overall I enjoyed the game. But if you're expecting a straight puzzle platformer, or a more in-depth RPG then maybe think twice before getting it.. The riddles were challenging! Good job with the gameplay even though I think the game is made for the VR experience!

Keep it up!. This game is addicting, I play a round almost every day. There's something about the freedom to design your own beard in get virtual money for it that makes me feel accomplished. To watch some gameplay, check out my video review/playthrough of the game here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q05RSDH2fGU>. i think they are making a good,simple and funny game, it's even better than it looks. the game is so simple and great ! 9\10 would love to play it again

Hello. I am reviewing the soundtrack for this game. I am a big fan of Claude La Bon Bon's work, and I think he did a fine job at it considering the circumstances that he was going through while creating this soundtrack. He had to make several trips to London and the men who run the studio that Dr. House records at made him bring his own fire wire cables, but he didn't have the right one at first because he had the four pin to six pin but he needed the six to six or six to nine pin connector. It resulted in a lot of work lost because he bought the wrong cable. Considering he didn't have the good cable, he did a great job. You can go to their youtube page to hear a lot of the songs that they had to cut from the game and this soundtrack because Claude La Bon Bon got screwed by "The Man." Luckily, when in London he found an English cat. The English cat was a very cute cat and I now call my own cat an English cat because of it and in Claude La Bon Bon's honour.. It's a tense and rather hard game, so if the devs can make a save option and not have to make you restart the WHOLE game again, then it'd be better. Still, I recommend this over FNAF any day.

....But seriously, add a save option. PLEASE!

\u0420\u0435\u043a\u043e\u043c\u0435\u0434\u0434\u0443\u0435\u043c....\u0438\u0433\u0440\u0443 \u0432 \u0441\u0442\u0442\u043e\u0442\u0435). This game is fun for about an hour..... Its so amazingly bad that the bugs make it hilarious. I play a lot of early access games and this one seems like they should have waited longer before rolling it out. Sadly there are not many playing this game so the experience lacks as you are playing lobby simulator most of the time. I tried this game via the free weekend they had.. Costs less than a buck and provides a nice puzzle experience for about an hour. Definite recommendation!. Best MXGP game so far ++++. This episode is shorter than the first one. Still fair but... it doesn't worth the price.
